2. Roles and Responsibilities:

- Student Rights and Responsibilities: All OOS students are expected to honor and practice their student rights and responsibilities.
All students have the right to:
 - Be provided with a high-quality education without being negatively affected by others' behavior
 - Be safe and respected in a welcoming school environment with no physical punishment
 - Be treated with respect and fairness by teachers, staff and fellow students
 - Be provided with appropriate educational activities that promote individual talents, abilities and potential
 - Be recognized for good behavior in class and while at school
 - Be supported in how to change misconduct into positive student behavior
 - Be supported by parents, guardians at school meetings about behavior

- Teachers and other staff
 - The classroom teacher is responsible for managing behavior in the classroom. Each teacher must have a behavior plan that includes classroom rules, expectations and consequences.
 - As a matter of course, all staff within the school should use encouraging language, praise and positive reinforcement both in lessons and around the school, so that positive behavior is instantly recognized and positively rewarded. Strategies agreed are applied by all, as consistency is the key.

- Parents are:
 - Asked to encourage students to follow the school rules and behavior expectations
 - Expected to respond quickly to a request to attend the school for a meeting about behavior
 - Asked to follow-up on behavior concerns at home and to implement the suggested consequences
 - Expected to act as good role-models for their children
 - Asked to inform the school if there are any circumstances that may affect their child's behavior
 - Expected to support any disciplinary action taken by the school and to ensure their child understands that school and home are working together and are in agreement

4. Disciplinary Procedures:

- At OOS, teachers and other adults manage the behavior of students in and around the school, address any inappropriate behavior themselves, prior to referring students to senior staff.
- Any disciplinary actions will be fair, consistent, and aligned with SPEA guidelines.
- A corporate responsibility around school is expected from all staff.
- Students will have the choice to learn from mistakes and to not commit a similar action. Any time-out imposed becomes a part of reflective process, where children are given the chance to learn and discuss their negative actions with staff.

- Serious and repeated behavior incidents must be recorded along with recording of all meetings with parents to discuss behavior concerns. Ideally, records will be kept electronically and should be available for future access.
- When applying penalties for behavioral violations, the following regulations shall be considered:
 - Dealing with the learner shall be done on the basis of respect for the student's personality and feelings.
 - Studying the reasons that lead to the occurrence of the violating behavior, and considering the learner's social, educational, psychological, health, and physical conditions and the circumstances in which the behavioral violation occurred and the extent of its recurrence.
 - Avoiding cruel procedures, psychological or physical abuse, insult, humiliation, ridicule, personal humiliation, or contempt.
 - Not generalizing the application of procedures to all students in the classroom or school for a mistake committed by one of the students.
 - Maintain the confidentiality of information related to behavioral violations and the learner's privacy and not defame him.
 - Avoid restricting the learner's freedom or detaining the student in school.
 - Avoid seizing the learner's personal belongings.
 - Avoid deducting grades in school subjects or threatening to do so. It is permissible to deduct grades from behavior subject.
 - Avoid depriving the learner of participating in events and trips.

Behavior Management Committee: is entrusted with discussing the students' problems in educational and behavioral terms and deciding the actions to be taken against the violating students, in accordance with the MOE/SPEA guidelines. The Committee also adopts the procedures of the establishment of positive behavior among the students and reducing offenses

This Committee is composed as follows:

- Chairman- The school Principal
- Vice Chairman- The Vice Principal
- Members- Head of Sections, Supervisors, Counsellor, Safety officer.
- LAB-Local Advisory board Governor
- Student council (member for discussion session)
- Any behavioral violation matter is reported to the Principal, Head of Section and concerned supervisor.
- The Principal assigns the behavior management committee to investigate each behavioral violation and extract evidence to issue final decisions. The committee then addresses the matter to the parents
- If the student's guardian refuses to sign or abstains from attending when they are requested to do so; then this shall be recorded on the paper that they are requested to sign, in the presence of Head of section/advisor and the safety officer whose signature shall be deemed as an evidence on that the student's guardian knows about the occurrence of the offense.

- The violating student and her guardian shall be obligated to pay for repairing or replacing the items damaged or lost by the student. The value to be paid shall be determined in the light of the relevant supporting documents.

Mechanism of Behavior Mark Calculation

Behavior subject shall be considered as one of the basic subjects that reflect the learning outputs and the student's attainment in the moral terms and shall be dealt with same as other subjects in terms of passing and failure.

One hundred marks shall be allocated to student's behavior subject. This Regulation shows the basis and mechanism of granting and deduction of behavior marks, where it is divided into two basic components:

Positive behavior:

- It is the behavior expected from all students without committing any offenses, for which 80% of the total behavior marks are allocated.
- Each student shall be considered as automatically eligible to the positive behavior marks (80 marks), at the beginning of each semester.
- If any offense is committed by the student in accordance herewith; then the proper action, taken as per the degree of offense according to the table to be included hereunder.

Exemplary behavior:

- It reflects the exemplary practices undertaken by the student, through his / her good behavior and morals, and his / her initiatives in the school community. 20% of the total behavior marks are allocated to exemplary behavior.
- During the semester, the educational staff shall assess the topics, indicators, and criteria of the exemplary behavior, and at the end of the semester; shall grant the student the marks he/she is eligible as per such topics, indicators and criteria, which are classified within three main topics:
 - 1) Personal development.
 - 2) Appreciating the religious values and respecting the identity, heritage, and culture of the UAE and the global cultures.
 - 3) Social responsibility as well as leadership and innovation skills.

The due mark of exemplary behavior shall be granted as per the topics, indicators, and criteria during each school semester.

Promotion of Behavior

The students' positive and exemplary behavior shall be promoted in consistence with their age groups, school grades and their mental and physical capabilities by using various methods. The following controls shall be considered when the procedures of positive and exemplary behavior promotion are applied:

- Promotion shall focus on the student's behavior.
- Promotion shall be done on immediate basis, through applauding the exemplary behavior and developing the positive behavior.
- Equal opportunities shall be provided for all students, in order to promote their positive and exemplary behaviors.
- Promotion shall be commensurate, in type and degree terms, with behavior to be promoted.

- Methods of promotion include moral, material, and educational methods.
- The students achieving the exemplary behavior criteria shall be rewarded by engaging them in the programs in which they will represent their school, whether inside or outside UAE.
- The student's guardian shall be informed of his daughter's behavior through periodic reports and meetings. The methods and strategies adopted by the school shall be discussed in order to promote the student's behavior. Emphasis shall be made on the need for cooperation between the student's guardian and the school, to establish the culture of the student admitting the mistakes and apologizing.

Behavior offenses are classified into four levels according to their degree, severity, and impact on the students, and on the educational environment and community in general.
